EEEDN International Conference
“Eating Disorders in Times of Global Uncertainty”

28 - 30 October, 2023
Krakow, Poland

The Eastern European Eating Disorder Network (EEEDN) has decided to hold its second international conference on October 28-30, 2023, in Krakow, with a special focus on the issue of eating disorders in times of global uncertainty.

Over the past few years, the world has faced a serious of deep crises, which have not passed and have a lasting impact on our sense of safety, security, and prospects for the future. Both Covid-19 and war in Ukraine have resulted in a steep increase in numbers of persons suffering from eating disorders.

The conference will take place in the historic Polish city of Krakow, to allow maximum Ukrainian participation. The conference usually attracts some 150 mental health professionals from Central and Eastern Europe as well as from the Caucasus and Central Asia. Among the speakers are prominent European specialists in the field of eating disorders.
